In South Africa, matriculation (or matric) is a term commonly used to refer to the final year of high school and the qualification received on graduating from high school, although strictly speaking, it refers to the minimum university entrance requirements. The first formal examination was conducted in South Africa under the University of the Cape of Good Hope in 1858.

GDE (Gauteng Department of Education) ~ According to the information received the standards of the GDE are falling. At present you need 2 x 40%, 2x 35% and 3x30% to pass and receive a matric certificate. But what is required to get those marks is very little work at all. Children who get high levels in the matric certificate are often failing at first year university level because the ...
